

9. This question tests the materials from Chapter 13 about the Fifth Amendment and the act of production privilege. Similar to the “Shirley” problem that is given in that chapter. Perhaps also worth considering whether any advice can or should be given about how to handle these documents before the government comes for them, while avoiding any suggestion of obstruction of justice.